

2009 Peirson Meyer
Untitled #5 Chardonnay
Sonoma County

This wine is a demonstration in the art of blending. Choosing from the barrels that ultimately make up the Charles Heintz, Laughlin Vineyard, and Russian River Valley Chardonnays, Robbie and Alan carefully selected individual barrels that would offer unique expression not necessarily shown in the individual blends that clearly represent the given vineyards.

As with the Untitled #4, the Peirson Meyer Untitled #5 has a striking minerality, granite and flinty right from the beginning. Heady aromas, surrounded by explosive notes of tangerine and orange Mascarpone. A clear and focused entry, spreads across the palate and lingers for a very long time.

*The Wine Advocate Review
by Antonio Galloni*

The 2009 Chardonnay Untitled #5 caresses the palate with layers of soft, subtle fruit. Delicate floral and spiced notes wrap around hints of pears and yellow stone fruit on the feminine, gracious finish. Alan Peirson and Robbie Meyer aim to capture the essence of the vintage with their Untitled series, which is essentially a selection of the best barrels in the cellar. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2016. - 92 pts.
