

PEIRSON MEYER
Pinot Noir
Sonoma Coast
Bateman Vineyard
2011

The 2011 Bateman Pinot Noir presents a perfumed nose, highlighted with notes of lilac and fresh flowers evolving into a deep and serious fruit profile with elements of berry jam and mint. The silky elegant yet weighty entry and mouthfeel of this wine is what sets this wine apart. This wine is delicious from the beginning, but will age nicely for years to come.

Review by Antonio Galloni
VINOUS - February 2014

Bright red berries, spices, wild flowers and mint jump from the glass in the 2011 Pinot Noir from the Bateman Vineyard. This juicy, mid-weight Pinot offers significant near-term appeal. Sweet floral notes add lift on the pointed finish. The 2012 spent 12 months in oak, 35% new. Dink through 2014-2018. - 92 pts..
