Pinot Noir
Sonoma Coast
Bateman Vineyard
2021

The unique site of the Bateman Vineyard is the origin of this Pinot's muscular and defined structure. The palate is full, but the tannins are clearly round and elegant. With its dark inky color and exquisite notes of forest floor, sassafras, earth, black cherries and tea, our Bateman Pinot Noir will age beautifully for many years.

Wine Advocate Review
by Robert Parker

The 2021 Pinot Noir Bateman Vineyard has a big, powerful style. It's scented of baked plums, blueberry, black licorice and lilac, flavors echoed on the medium-bodied palate. It has plush tannins, bright acidity and a long, flavorful finish. The Sonoma Coast appellation is a bit of a misnomer, as this is a Pinot Noir for Cabernet lovers.
