PEIRSON MEYER

Pinot Noir
Russian River Valley
Miller Vineyard
2021

Offering bright fruit and floral nuances with dense ripe cherries, wild strawberry, rose petals and jasmine, this seductive wine continues to evolve both in the glass and in the bottle revealing its more subtle notes of vanilla spice and stoney minerality. The palate is incredibly intense and seductive with its smooth structure and silky finish.

Wine Advocate Review
by Robert Parker

The 2021 Pinot Noir Miller Vineyard is powerful and savory in style. It's scented of cranberry sauce and pomegranate with accents of aniseed, mushroom, tree bark and allspice. The medium-bodied palate is bright and grainy with earthy, woodsmoke-laced flavors and generous oak spices on the finish. 92 points

Miller Vineyard

Located on the southern edge of Graton, this north facing one acre vineyard lies on a gentle slope that protects the fruit from the hot afternoon sun. Planted in 1998 in Goldridge soils the vines are trained on a vertical trellis.
