Pinot Noir
Russian River Valley
Miller Vineyard
2022

The 2022 Pinot Noir from Miller Vineyard captivates with a bouquet of bright fruit and floral nuances, unveiling layers of ripe cherries, wild strawberry, rose petals, and jasmine. This seductive wine evolves gracefully, both in the glass and over time, revealing delicate hints of vanilla spice and a stony minerality. Pale ruby in hue, its expressive aromas of underbrush, wild mint, tobacco, and dried orange peel add depth, while tea leaves and floral perfume lend an air of elegance. On the palate, the wine is both intense and alluring, with a smooth, silky structure that lingers in a long, spicy finish. Crafted with precision, this Pinot Noir offers an expansive, medium-bodied mouthfeel, leaving a lasting impression.

Miller Vineyard

Located on the southern edge of Graton, this north facing one acre vineyard lies on a gentle slope that protects the fruit from the hot afternoon sun. Planted in 1998 in Goldridge soils the vines are trained on a vertical trellis.
