Pinot Noir

Russian River Valley

2022

Bright aromas of cherry, wild berries, and pomegranate rise from the glass, gracefully blending with a palate touched by sweet spice, flinty minerality, and a distinctive freshness of earth. Open and expressive in its youth, the 2022 Pinot Noir reveals layers of complexity that promise to evolve beautifully with time.

Russian River

Sourced from the Miller and Bateman Vineyards in the Russian River Valley, both perched at around 700 feet near Occidental, this Pinot Noir thrives in the famed Goldridge soils. The vines, carefully trained on vertical trellis systems along northeast-facing slopes, are shielded from the intense summer sun, allowing for a slow, balanced ripening that shines through in every bottle.
